Low-Cost Direct Cremations: Local and Otherwise

Relatively inexpensive cremation services can be provided by some non-profit consumer organizations. Contact them directly for further information.

People's Memorial Association is a non-sectarian, non-profit organization that has enrolled over 180,000 members in western Washington. PMA is the oldest and largest of the 150 affiliated funeral organizations in the U.S. and Canada. This state-wide organization provides price surveys of nearly all the funeral homes in Washington State. Members can get discounted prices on cremation and burial services at 26 locations around the state.
